The first volume of the Parish Registers of St. Albans Abbey, of which the following pages contain a complete genealogical transcript, has an interesting history. Inside its present handsome leather binding is pasted a sheet of paper containing the following note :—

“This Register, supposed to have been burnt in a Fire, which destroyed the St. Albans Rectory A.D. MDCCXLIII, was in MDCCCLXXX discovered by Mr. Craggs in a hay loft attached to his house in St. Albans, the property of Mr. J. Kent, great-grandson of the Mr. John Kent who died in MDCCXCVIII, having been for more than half a century clerk to the Abbey. The Book was identified as the long lost Register by the Rev. John Griffith, LL.D., Vicar of Sandridge, at whose charge it was re-bound by the British Museum book-binders; he then handed it over to the care of the Rector, the Rev. W. J. Lawrance, for preservation with the other Parish Registers. July 22nd, 1880.”

On the first fly leaf of the volume occurs the following memorandum :—

“This Register booke for the Abby parish of St. Albanes was enlarged and new bound the 25 March 1652 by Richard Williams, Stationer in St. Albanes by direction and order of Fromabove Done, William Stephens & John Clarke, being then and there Churchwardens, which cost fiteene shillings ”

Beneath the above is written :—

William Hunt

his book Anno

Domini In y<sup>e</sup> year of our lord 1697

and ‘Richard Ruth Junier’ also signs his name on this page.

I beg to record my indebtedness to the Venerable Archdeacon LAWRENCE for kindly permitting me to make this transcript and subsequently affording me easy access to the original for the purpose of correcting the whole of the proof sheets.
